

SOCIAL EVENTS AND PERSONAL MENTION

RICHMOND PEOPLE LEAVE FOR SUMMER RESORTS

Mrs. Thomas Rutherford Opens Her Cottage at the White Sulphur Springs This Week.

Richmond people are leaving town every day now for the various summer resorts and places of interest in the North and throughout this State. Mrs. Thomas Rutherford and her daughter, Miss Gwendolyn Rutherford, expect to close their town house this week and leave on Saturday to occupy their cottage at the White Sulphur Springs. Mrs. Rutherford will have as her guest at her cottage at the White for the season Mrs. Thomas Bolling, who has recently returned from a visit to relatives in Alabama.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Culp left town yesterday morning for Philadelphia, and will also spend some time in Atlantic City. Mr. and Mrs. Culp will later leave for the Adirondacks, where they will remain until the latter part of the summer.

Miss Annie Ball and Miss Ellen Ball are at Provincetown, Mass., for the summer season. Miss Ellen Ball is studying art in Provincetown for several months.

Miss Nannie Winston is leaving Richmond today for Harrisburg, Pa., where she will remain for some time. Miss Winston will be the guest of Mrs. Gilbert, who was before her marriage, Miss Ella Cameron, of Petersburg, during her stay in Harrisburg.

Visiting Here.—Mr. and Mrs. David Eaglesfield and her small son, of Indianapolis, Ind., arrived in Richmond yesterday to be the guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Haskins Hobson, at Forest Hill for a few days. Mrs. Eaglesfield and her son will then go to "Airey," Powhatan County, for an extended visit to the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hobson.

Visiting Friends.—James Daniel has been the recent guest of Richard Fleming at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Fleming, "Gordonsdale," in Fauquier County. He spent two weeks in Fauquier and is now camping with George Fitzgerald and a party of Richmond boys at Camp Greenfield, near Massena, N. Y.

Robert W. Daniel, who went abroad the middle of May, landed in this country last Thursday morning. He is now in Richmond as the guest of his mother, Mrs. James R. W. Daniel. Mr. Daniel was much interested during his stay in London, and upon one occasion was a guest at the home of the Lord Bishop of London.

In London.—Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Roosevelt, the latter formerly Miss Belle Wyatt Willard, daughter of Joseph R. Willard, Ambassador to Spain, and Mrs. Willard, whose marriage took place last month, are visiting in London. Mr. Roosevelt is in London, and will sail in a week for New York, where they will visit Mr. Roosevelt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roosevelt, at their summer home at Oyster Bay. Later they will go to South America, where the bridegroom is engaged in business.

Guests Entertained.—Mr. and Mrs. F. Williams gave a dinner Saturday evening at the Wiltshire Beach Hotel including Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Coker, Mr. and Mrs. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. F. Williams, Miss E. Williams, Miss Mary McGary, Miss Irma Reaman, J. L. Williams, R. A. Will, and S. G. Eubank, all of Richmond.

Thursday afternoon Miss Helen Dugger entertained a number of friends at a lovely party given at her home in Portsmouth in honor of her house guest, Miss Gertrude Weaver, of Richmond. Juvenile games were played, and in the one of "Threading the Needle" Miss Gertrude Weaver won the prize, and Miss Gertrude Weaver was most successful in snatching the greatest number of peanuts and winning a prize for her success. The table appointments were in red and white, and to every guest was given a box of candy tied with red ribbon.

Those present were Miss Reams and Misses Caroline Wiley, Minnie Brooks, Parker, Gertrude Weaver, Mary and Gladys Hall, Rebecca Pollard, Ethel Smith and Ruth Porter.

Visiting Party.—Miss Sallie Carter, of Fredericksburg, entertained quite a number of friends at a delightful party given at her home "Thais" during the week-end. The party left Friday night, going as far as Appamannock, and returned Sunday. Mrs. W. D. Carter, chaperone of the party, which included Misses Kate N. Bennett, Lucy Knox, Lucille Carter, Lennie Carter, and Sallie Carter, and Messrs. Leigh, of Philadelphia, Laurie Riegs, of Baltimore, Cain, of Philadelphia, Spotswood, of Philadelphia, and Douglas Carter, of Philadelphia.

At Natural Bridge.—A number of Richmond people go to Natural Bridge, near Lexington, for the summer, and the cottage and hotel and a large contingent from this city since the season opened. Among those registered at the cottage are Mrs. L. H. Minnie, of Richmond; Miss Rose Seagrove, of South Africa; Mrs. L. H. Jones and family, of Franklin; Miss Alice M. Hargrove, of Port Norfolk; the Misses Macmillan, of Charleston, S. C.; Miss George Bridgforth, of Kentucky; Miss Faith Bridgforth, of Kentucky; Mr. Reed, of Buena Vista; Michael Wagoner, of Norfolk; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. of Portsmouth; Miss Violet Clarke, of Richmond; Miss Lily Clarke, Miss Ella Bowman, Miss Alice Thurston, Miss Ruby Graver, Miss Mary Thurston, all of this city; Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Farley, of Grewe; Mrs. R. D. Phoenix, of Henric; Miss Lucilla Graham, of Philadelphia; Misses Agnes M. Graham and Elizabeth Graham, of Philadelphia.

Guests of Relatives.—Captain and Mrs. A. J. Penner, of Tampa, Fla., are in the city visiting Mrs. Penner's brother, L. Penner, of 700 Garland Avenue, for a week. Captain Penner formerly made his home in Richmond.

In Richmond.—Mrs. Thomas McIlhenny, who spent the last month at the Greenview, in Baltimore, and who since has been the guest of Mrs. Alexander Robertson, at her home on Cathedral Street, is now visiting friends in Richmond. Later she will join her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Heine, who are occupying for the summer months a cottage at Belair, Md.

Going Abroad.—Miss Rabele Kaufman, of Danville, left last week for Baltimore and New York from which point she will sail on July 15 with her party for a trip abroad. Miss Kaufman expects to be away four months.

In an Out of Town.—Mr. and Mrs. J. Cloyd Kent and their small daughter have returned to the city, after spending a month at Virginia Beach.

Mrs. A. W. Bennett and her daughter, Miss Esther Bennett, are sailing today to spend the summer abroad.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Hall have returned to the Greenview, after an extended stay in Raleigh, N. C.

Miss Lily Pagan, of this city, is spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. Page at their home in West Virginia.

Mrs. Charles Wallace Schuler and her children, of 2216 West Grace Street, are at Shawwell for the summer months.

Mrs. R. H. Shackelford is spending the summer season with friends in Waynesboro.

Miss Carrie Hill Davis is the guest of J. D. Harrison and his family in Danville.

Dr. Norton Mason, who was operated on for appendicitis Monday at the Joiner-Willis Hospital, is now improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Williamson Taylor and their daughter, Florence, sailed last night from Boston to remain abroad until October.

Misses Fanny and Mary Robbins and

Miss Mary Hooking, of Harford County, Md., are visiting their uncle, G. D. Robbins, at "Buck Hill."

John R. Locke, of Newport News, is spending a short time with friends in this city.

Mrs. Mabel Lohmann and her daughter, Ida Turman, will spend the summer with Mrs. Lohmann's aunt, Mrs. David Spitzer, in Martin, W. Va.

Miss Fannie Purdum has returned to Danville, after a two months' trip to Richmond, Norfolk, and Washington, having visited Miss Minerva Adams on Grove Avenue during her stay here.

Charles L. Todd, who spent the week-end with relatives near Staunton, has returned to Richmond.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Whitehurst have returned from Virginia Beach, where they have been for the week-end.

Mrs. George Mayo, who has been spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. Frederick Paken, in Newport News, has returned to the city.

Miss Ruth Olanoff, of this city, is the guest of Miss Susan Long at her home in Caroline County.

Miss Margaret Lowe, of Richmond, has come to Virginia Beach to visit friends for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Manville and her daughter, Miss Grace Manville, motored to Richmond from Newport News on Saturday.

Spotswood Hall has returned to the city, after spending the week-end with relatives in Fredericksburg.

Mrs. A. H. Branch, of Newport News, arrived in this city on Saturday.

John Thurston, who has been in Richmond for a few days, has returned to his home in Gloucester.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ramsey, of this city, are spending some time at Virginia Beach.

Miss Ruth Brooks, of Newport News, is visiting relatives in this city for a few days.

Miss Martha Martin has returned to the city, after spending several days with friends at Virginia Beach.

Little Miss Mary Elizabeth Bowers, who has been a guest of Miss Nora Willis in Fredericksburg, returned to Richmond on Monday.

Mrs. E. E. James and Mrs. J. F. May, of Richmond, are visiting Mrs. R. C. New at her home in Newport News.

Miss Ethel Boudar, of West Grace Street, has been the guest of friends at Virginia Beach.

Mrs. Elma S. McFadden has returned to Richmond, after a visit to Ocean View.

Lieutenant R. L. Smith, attached to the 1st Mississippi, is in Richmond before leaving for Washington.

Mrs. D. W. Scott has returned to Fredericksburg, after a brief stay in this city.

Clarence A. Seaton has returned from a visit to Mr. and Mrs. John W. Todd at "Glenmore," near Staunton, where Mrs. Seaton and her children are spending the summer.

Woodbridge-Sampson.—[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.] Woodbridge, Va., July 7.—Miss Helen L. Sampson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. T. R. Sampson, formerly of this city, now of Austin, Tex., was united in marriage on Saturday to Arthur Ross Woodbridge, of Toronto, Can., the wedding taking place at the home of the bride's parents. Rev. Arthur Woodbridge, of Fredericksburg, performed the ceremony. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Woodbridge left for their home, in Toronto, Can., and will stop en route at St. Louis, Chicago and other points. The father of the bride was formerly president of Fredericksburg College. The groom is a son of A. P. Woodbridge, Mayor of Austin, Tex. He is now in business in Toronto.

Kirby-Kirby.—[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.] Charlottesville, Va., July 7.—James Lucy Kirby and Miss Virginia Kirby, both of this city, were married last night at St. John's Chapel, near the Miller School, by Archdeacon R. W. Nece, rector of St. Paul's Church, Ivy, officiating. The bride was given away by her father. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Kirby left for their home, "Oak Hill," this county.

SOUTH BOSTON TO HAVE TROOP OF BOY SCOUTS.—[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.] South Boston, Va., July 7.—W. J. R. Housman, Scout commissioner of the State, addressed a mass meeting of men and boys at the Presbyterian Church at this place on Sunday afternoon. His subject was "The Boy Scout, What This Boy Is and What He Is Not." The main object of the meeting was to organize and secure as many troops as possible. The meeting was presided over by Rev. C. W. Waxwell, there being present about fifty boys and twenty laymen. There seemed to be great enthusiasm among the boys, many of them wanting to secure uniforms at once. Twenty laymen will form the local council. Mr. Housman will return to South Boston, but expects to return soon, and push the work vigorously.

Removal Sale Now In Progress.—[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.] South Boston, Va., July 7.—W. J. R. Housman, Scout commissioner of the State, addressed a mass meeting of men and boys at the Presbyterian Church at this place on Sunday afternoon. His subject was "The Boy Scout, What This Boy Is and What He Is Not." The main object of the meeting was to organize and secure as many troops as possible. The meeting was presided over by Rev. C. W. Waxwell, there being present about fifty boys and twenty laymen. There seemed to be great enthusiasm among the boys, many of them wanting to secure uniforms at once. Twenty laymen will form the local council. Mr. Housman will return to South Boston, but expects to return soon, and push the work vigorously.

PREMATURE BALDNESS.—[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.] South Boston, Va., July 7.—W. J. R. Housman, Scout commissioner of the State, addressed a mass meeting of men and boys at the Presbyterian Church at this place on Sunday afternoon. His subject was "The Boy Scout, What This Boy Is and What He Is Not." The main object of the meeting was to organize and secure as many troops as possible. The meeting was presided over by Rev. C. W. Waxwell, there being present about fifty boys and twenty laymen. There seemed to be great enthusiasm among the boys, many of them wanting to secure uniforms at once. Twenty laymen will form the local council. Mr. Housman will return to South Boston, but expects to return soon, and push the work vigorously.

PREMATURE BALDNESS.—[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.] South Boston, Va., July 7.—W. J. R. Housman, Scout commissioner of the State, addressed a mass meeting of men and boys at the Presbyterian Church at this place on Sunday afternoon. His subject was "The Boy Scout, What This Boy Is and What He Is Not." The main object of the meeting was to organize and secure as many troops as possible. The meeting was presided over by Rev. C. W. Waxwell, there being present about fifty boys and twenty laymen. There seemed to be great enthusiasm among the boys, many of them wanting to secure uniforms at once. Twenty laymen will form the local council. Mr. Housman will return to South Boston, but expects to return soon, and push the work vigorously.

PREMATURE BALDNESS.—[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.] South Boston, Va., July 7.—W. J. R. Housman, Scout commissioner of the State, addressed a mass meeting of men and boys at the Presbyterian Church at this place on Sunday afternoon. His subject was "The Boy Scout, What This Boy Is and What He Is Not." The main object of the meeting was to organize and secure as many troops as possible. The meeting was presided over by Rev. C. W. Waxwell, there being present about fifty boys and twenty laymen. There seemed to be great enthusiasm among the boys, many of them wanting to secure uniforms at once. Twenty laymen will form the local council. Mr. Housman will return to South Boston, but expects to return soon, and push the work vigorously.

PREMATURE BALDNESS.—[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.] South Boston, Va., July 7.—W. J. R. Housman, Scout commissioner of the State, addressed a mass meeting of men and boys at the Presbyterian Church at this place on Sunday afternoon. His subject was "The Boy Scout, What This Boy Is and What He Is Not." The main object of the meeting was to organize and secure as many troops as possible. The meeting was presided over by Rev. C. W. Waxwell, there being present about fifty boys and twenty laymen. There seemed to be great enthusiasm among the boys, many of them wanting to secure uniforms at once. Twenty laymen will form the local council. Mr. Housman will return to South Boston, but expects to return soon, and push the work vigorously.

PREMATURE BALDNESS.—[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.] South Boston, Va., July 7.—W. J. R. Housman, Scout commissioner of the State, addressed a mass meeting of men and boys at the Presbyterian Church at this place on Sunday afternoon. His subject was "The Boy Scout, What This Boy Is and What He Is Not." The main object of the meeting was to organize and secure as many troops as possible. The meeting was presided over by Rev. C. W. Waxwell, there being present about fifty boys and twenty laymen. There seemed to be great enthusiasm among the boys, many of them wanting to secure uniforms at once. Twenty laymen will form the local council. Mr. Housman will return to South Boston, but expects to return soon, and push the work vigorously.

PREMATURE BALDNESS.—[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.] South Boston, Va., July 7.—W. J. R. Housman, Scout commissioner of the State, addressed a mass meeting of men and boys at the Presbyterian Church at this place on Sunday afternoon. His subject was "The Boy Scout, What This Boy Is and What He Is Not." The main object of the meeting was to organize and secure as many troops as possible. The meeting was presided over by Rev. C. W. Waxwell, there being present about fifty boys and twenty laymen. There seemed to be great enthusiasm among the boys, many of them wanting to secure uniforms at once. Twenty laymen will form the local council. Mr. Housman will return to South Boston, but expects to return soon, and push the work vigorously.

PREMATURE BALDNESS.—[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.] South Boston, Va., July 7.—W. J. R. Housman, Scout commissioner of the State, addressed a mass meeting of men and boys at the Presbyterian Church at this place on Sunday afternoon. His subject was "The Boy Scout, What This Boy Is and What He Is Not." The main object of the meeting was to organize and secure as many troops as possible. The meeting was presided over by Rev. C. W. Waxwell, there being present about fifty boys and twenty laymen. There seemed to be great enthusiasm among the boys, many of them wanting to secure uniforms at once. Twenty laymen will form the local council. Mr. Housman will return to South Boston, but expects to return soon, and push the work vigorously.

PREMATURE BALDNESS.—[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.] South Boston, Va., July 7.—W. J. R. Housman, Scout commissioner of the State, addressed a mass meeting of men and boys at the Presbyterian Church at this place on Sunday afternoon. His subject was "The Boy Scout, What This Boy Is and What He Is Not." The main object of the meeting was to organize and secure as many troops as possible. The meeting was presided over by Rev. C. W. Waxwell, there being present about fifty boys and twenty laymen. There seemed to be great enthusiasm among the boys, many of them wanting to secure uniforms at once. Twenty laymen will form the local council. Mr. Housman will return to South Boston, but expects to return soon, and push the work vigorously.

PREMATURE BALDNESS.—[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.] South Boston, Va., July 7.—W. J. R. Housman, Scout commissioner of the State, addressed a mass meeting of men and boys at the Presbyterian Church at this place on Sunday afternoon. His subject was "The Boy Scout, What This Boy Is and What He Is Not." The main object of the meeting was to organize and secure as many troops as possible. The meeting was presided over by Rev. C. W. Waxwell, there being present about fifty boys and twenty laymen. There seemed to be great enthusiasm among the boys, many of them wanting to secure uniforms at once. Twenty laymen will form the local council. Mr. Housman will return to South Boston, but expects to return soon, and push the work vigorously.

PREMATURE BALDNESS.—[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.] South Boston, Va., July 7.—W. J. R. Housman, Scout commissioner of the State, addressed a mass meeting of men and boys at the Presbyterian Church at this place on Sunday afternoon. His subject was "The Boy Scout, What This Boy Is and What He Is Not." The main object of the meeting was to organize and secure as many troops as possible. The meeting was presided over by Rev. C. W. Waxwell, there being present about fifty boys and twenty laymen. There seemed to be great enthusiasm among the boys, many of them wanting to secure uniforms at once. Twenty laymen will form the local council. Mr. Housman will return to South Boston, but expects to return soon, and push the work vigorously.

PREMATURE BALDNESS.—[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.] South Boston, Va., July 7.—W. J. R. Housman, Scout commissioner of the State, addressed a mass meeting of men and boys at the Presbyterian Church at this place on Sunday afternoon. His subject was "The Boy Scout, What This Boy Is and What He Is Not." The main object of the meeting was to organize and secure as many troops as possible. The meeting was presided over by Rev. C. W. Waxwell, there being present about fifty boys and twenty laymen. There seemed to be great enthusiasm among the boys, many of them wanting to secure uniforms at once. Twenty laymen will form the local council. Mr. Housman will return to South Boston, but expects to return soon, and push the work vigorously.

PREMATURE BALDNESS.—[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.] South Boston, Va., July 7.—W. J. R. Housman, Scout commissioner of the State, addressed a mass meeting of men and boys at the Presbyterian Church at this place on Sunday afternoon. His subject was "The Boy Scout, What This Boy Is and What He Is Not." The main object of the meeting was to organize and secure as many troops as possible. The meeting was presided over by Rev. C. W. Waxwell, there being present about fifty boys and twenty laymen. There seemed to be great enthusiasm among the boys, many of them wanting to secure uniforms at once. Twenty laymen will form the local council. Mr. Housman will return to South Boston, but expects to return soon, and push the work vigorously.

PREMATURE BALDNESS.—[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.] South Boston, Va., July 7.—W. J. R. Housman, Scout commissioner of the State, addressed a mass meeting of men and boys at the Presbyterian Church at this place on Sunday afternoon. His subject was "The Boy Scout, What This Boy Is and What He Is Not." The main object of the meeting was to organize and secure as many troops as possible. The meeting was presided over by Rev. C. W. Waxwell, there being present about fifty boys and twenty laymen. There seemed to be great enthusiasm among the boys, many of them wanting to secure uniforms at once. Twenty laymen will form the local council. Mr. Housman will return to South Boston, but expects to return soon, and push the work vigorously.

PREMATURE BALDNESS.—[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.] South Boston, Va., July 7.—W. J. R. Housman, Scout commissioner of the State, addressed a mass meeting of men and boys at the Presbyterian Church at this place on Sunday afternoon. His subject was "The Boy Scout, What This Boy Is and What He Is Not." The main object of the meeting was to organize and secure as many troops as possible. The meeting was presided over by Rev. C. W. Waxwell, there being present about fifty boys and twenty laymen. There seemed to be great enthusiasm among the boys, many of them wanting to secure uniforms at once. Twenty laymen will form the local council. Mr. Housman will return to South Boston, but expects to return soon, and push the work vigorously.

PREMATURE BALDNESS.—[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.] South Boston, Va., July 7.—W. J. R. Housman, Scout commissioner of the State, addressed a mass meeting of men and boys at the Presbyterian Church at this place on Sunday afternoon. His subject was "The Boy Scout, What This Boy Is and What He Is Not." The main object of the meeting was to organize and secure as many troops as possible. The meeting was presided over by Rev. C. W. Waxwell, there being present about fifty boys and twenty laymen. There seemed to be great enthusiasm among the boys, many of them wanting to secure uniforms at once. Twenty laymen will form the local council. Mr. Housman will return to South Boston, but expects to return soon, and push the work vigorously.

PREMATURE BALDNESS.—[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.] South Boston, Va., July 7.—W. J. R. Housman, Scout commissioner of the State, addressed a mass meeting of men and boys at the Presbyterian Church at this place on Sunday afternoon. His subject was "The Boy Scout, What This Boy Is and What He Is Not." The main object of the meeting was to organize and secure as many troops as possible. The meeting was presided over by Rev. C. W. Waxwell, there being present about fifty boys and twenty laymen. There seemed to be great enthusiasm among the boys, many of them wanting to secure uniforms at once. Twenty laymen will form the local council. Mr. Housman will return to South Boston, but expects to return soon, and push the work vigorously.

Kaufmann's Wednesday Basement News

Broad at Fourth

The Kaufmann Store

Open Until 5 P. M.

July Clearance Dresses. Beauties at Any Price

But at the sale they are simply irresistible. Look them over and you will surely take one home

Stunning little Tunic Skirted Dresses, designed along particularly stylish lines, with the late blouse and kimono sleeve effects, also fancy collars and finished with colored buttons. Color combinations for all, in light blue and pink, and in black; sizes 36 to 44. A $4.00 Frock at $2.98.

For the woman who is willing to spend $5.00 and no more for a Frock, these are gems. Smartly made of white corded crepe, with the long Russian tunic skirts. Summery blouse, with sleeves kimono style and vest, collar and cuffs of fine embroidery, with colored embroidered edge. Finished with wide patent leather belt; sizes 36 to 44. This Frock a veritable bargain at $7.50; special, $5.00.

In this assortment we offer seven distinct styles, made of crepes, voile, lawn and ratine. There are tunic and ruffle skirt styles, with fancy bodice, trimmed in shadow and Val. laces, with ribbon and velvet girdles; sizes 36 to 44. $5.00 Dresses, $3.98.

New and More Wonderful Blouses

So instant was the response to our sale of low-priced Blouses copied from the high-priced models that we are certain many of you will be pleased at this new offering. They are the equal in every way of the French copies we showed last week—all the style quality of $2 and $3 garments.

Blouse made of figured net so sheer as to be almost transparent. It has kimono sleeve joined with beading; upstanding collar and vest effect of scalloped and embroidered organdy, finished with pearl buttons and black moire ribbon tie—$1.00.

Blouse of organdy, with drop shoulder joined with Val. insertion. Front in clusters of pin tucks, striped in bands of Val., upstanding collar and cuffs of organdy, with exquisite tan-toned embroidery; fastened with crocheted buttons—$1.00.

A Stunning Blouse of fine quality organdy, suggesting the tailored effects so modish at present. It is made perfectly plain, the snow white organdy contrasting charmingly with the cream baby Irish lace edging of the revers. It has drop shoulders, finished with centre-deux—$1.00.

Blouse of sheer organdy, with dainty tucking front and back. Kimono sleeve, joined with centre-deux, pointed hemstitched collar and cuffs, finished with cameo style buttons, in pink, green and red—$1.00.

Specials at S. ULLMAN'S SON

1820 East Main Street, and 500 East Marshall Street.
Juicy Lemons, dozen..... 15c
Honey Cucumbers, doz..... 5c
Fresh Country Eggs, dozen..... 22c
Spring Chickens, pound..... 25c
Fresh Country Butter, pound..... 25c
Canning, dozen..... 15c
New Potatoes, half bushel..... 25c
Best Cream Cheese, pound..... 25c

HAVE YOU SEEN THE New Method Gas Ranges AT PETTIT & CO.'S?

Nadine Face Powder
(In Green Boxes Only)
Makes The Complexion Beautiful

Producing that soft, velvety freshness so much admired. Money refunded if not entirely pleased. Nadine is pure and harmless and adheres and washes off. Blends adorns and refreshes. It removes all blemishes, prevents sunburn and return of discolorations. A million delighted users endorse the delicate tints, Flesh, Pink, Brunette, White. By Toilet Counter or Mail, 50c. National Toilet Company, Paris, Tenn.

Removal Sale Now In Progress

Rountree's
The Biggest Bargains in Year in Trunks, Bags and Suitcases --- Now

White Crepe SKIRTS

Finest imported crepes in these, beautifully made in the new tunic models. Perfect in fit, graceful and style correct. Same skirts have fetched $5.00 in some stores. Here, while the lot $3.75 lasts

Fourquarean, Temple & Co.

Samples Free by Mail
Cuticura Soap and Ointment sold throughout the world. Liberal size sample each mailed free, with 22-cent box. Add 4-cent postage. Dept. 2511, Boston.

J. B. Mosby & Co.

Inventory sale of Table Linens and Fancy Linens. Reduced prices.

Don't experiment with refrigerators. Buy an Alaska now. Prices, $7.50 up.

JURGENS

Adams and Broads Streets.
$3.00 values.....$2.30
$3.50 values.....2.70
$4.00 values.....3.20

Hopkins Furniture Co

7 West Broad Street
CASH OR CREDIT

KEEP YOUR FOOD IN AN EDDY REFRIGERATOR

Not alone because it is the most sanitary and convenient, but because it will cut down your ice bills. IT SAVES ICE. Come in and see it.

E. B. TAYLOR CO.

1009 East Main Street.

Our latest tea triumph—the "Orange Label" Blend—30c. a half pound—Your Grocer has it.

Ridgways Tea

White Crepe SKIRTS

White Crepe SKIRTS

White Crepe SKIRTS

White Crepe SKIRTS

White Crepe SKIRTS

White Crepe SKIRTS

White Crepe SKIRTS

White Crepe SKIRTS

White Crepe SKIRTS

We Sell More Ready-to-Wear Garments for Women Than Any Other Richmond Store.

THALHIMER'S

Seasonable Merchandise of the Highest Character Reduced in Price for Wednesday's Selling.

Infants' Carriage Robes, Lingerie, Pillows and Bibs

On Sale Wednesday at Half Price and Less

Sales tables first floor, left aisle. Extra salesladies on hand to see that you are properly and quickly served.

50c Pique Carriage Robes, 25c
These Robes are full size, have attractive embroidered borders in white and colors; only about two dozen in the assortment. Don't miss them.

$1 and $1.50 Carriage Robes, 55c
Made of fine pique, shown with scalloped embroidered edges; others trimmed with Swiss embroidery.

$1.50 and $2 Carriage Covers, 79c
Shown in 20 attractive styles, made of fine quality material, with embroidered and scalloped borders and edges; many are ribbon trimmed.

25c and 39c Lingerie Pillow Slips, 15c
Shown in both the plain hemstitched and embroidered styles.

50c and 75c Lingerie Pillow Slips, 39c
All dainty styles and no two alike; lace and embroidered edges.

$1 and $1.19 Lingerie Pillow Slips, 42c
These have edges of fine lace and embroideries; many are made with lace insertion; all wonderful values at the above low price.